The New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA) and Carnegie Art Center are vitally concerned with the success of every activity funded under the Decentralization Program. Program audits will be performed on your funded programs/projects, therefore it is very important that you keep the Carnegie Art Center informed as to your program/project developments and/or any changes – If there are any significant changes to your original application's project you must call the DEC Coordinator ASAP at (716) 694-4400 x 302 to follow the proper change of program procedures – failure to do so may result in a loss of your 2009 DEC funding.

You MUST submit in advance copies of any publicity materials, programs, posters, etc., relating to your program/project. Please remember you MUST include Proper Acknowledgment in ALL of your publicity. This is very important and must be adhered to. Also, whenever possible, please take photographs of your programs/projects and submit them with your Final Report when that time comes. Please provide the information requested below. This sheet and other important DEC forms are all available for download at www.carnegieartcenter.org/grant.html
